New York, 4.—The bodies of three seamen, supposed to have bolonged to the bark which foundered off Long Branch yesterday came salrore near there to-day. Another vessel has stranded.

The Star Route Service.

Washington, 4.-The investigation of Washington, 4.—The investigation of the Star route service was continued to-day. John A. Waish, present contractor on the Santa Fe and Prescott route, gave spicy testimony. It was a popular fullacy that there was a bonanza in every Star route contract. He was led to be lieve by former holders of his contract that there was good profit in it at the original figures, and though he lost heavily at first, it became a matter of pride with him to hold on to the contract. He proposed to wrestle with it, and hoped at the present figure, $155,900 per annum, to save his place, though the compensation ought to be $200,000.

St. Petersburg, 4.—The Golos publishes an article on the recent letter of Count Von Moltke in reply to a correspondent who requested him to use his induces with the Emperor for a reduction of the army, in which the count suggested that nations must be educated in the belief that even a victorious war is a national minortume, and by implication justified the proposed increase in the German army. The article says Russin cannot remain insultive in the face of armaments of the rest of Europe, but will also increase her army.

Wiping Out a Family.

Lucan, Ont., 4.—About 12 la.t night, masked men entered the dwelling of the somewhat notorious Donnelly family, and murdered the father, mother, one son and a neice. A boy named Conner, the only other inmate, took refuge under the bed and except. The band then set fire to the house, which, with the murdered bodies, was totally consumed. Another sea, residing about three miles from the homestead, was called to his door about the same hour and shot dead. The township is wild with excitement.
